

Revac Banfield, Columbia River

ALL-REGION BOYS TRACK AND FIELD ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

TAYLOR BALKOM/The Columbian

Rest of the 2024 All-Region boys track and field team

Josiah Alanis, Evergreen

Junior set a 3A state meet record to win long jump title (24 feet, 1 inch) in his second year of track and field.

Joe Callerame, Seton Catholic

Junior had personal-best 184-3 in the javelin to place fourth at 1A state meet.

Will Foster, Prairie

Junior won 3A shot put state title with an all-classification-best (59-7.75). Also finished second at state in the discus.

Ethan Linerud, Camas

Senior broke discus school record (172-7) to win the 4A state title. School's first boys discus champ in 22 years.

Chase McGee, Camas

Junior won 4A pole vault state title at 16-6, a height tied for third-best all-time at state across all classifications.

Jacob McManus, Columbia River

Junior set personal-best times at the 2A state meet with a pair of runner-up finishes: 1,600 (4:11.10) and 3,200 (9:06.80).

Juan Pasillas-Stanton, Mt. View

Junior was runner-up at 3A state meet in the shot put (59-6). Had the state's second-best mark in all classifications.

Davis Sullivan, Ridgefield

Junior placed eighth at 2A state meet in 800 (1:57.47). Time achieved in state prelims ranks tops in region (1:57.12).

Koynn Williamdyke, R.A. Long

Senior captured 2A 300 hurdles state title (39.75). One of four 2A hurdlers statewide with sub-40-second times.

Adam Williams, Hudson's Bay

Senior league, district champion at 400 meters placed fourth at 2A state meet with first sub-50-second time (49.85).

Tucker Wyninger, Stevenson

No 1A pole vaulter matched the senior's top height of 14-6. Won 1A state title and placed eighth in 110 hurdles.

ABOUT ALL-REGION TEAMS

All-Region teams are selected from teams in the 4A, 3A, 2A Greater St. Helens League, 1A Trico League, as well as Kalama. Coaches were consulted before staff made final selections.

Every athlete that is selected to a Columbian All-Region team during the 2023-24 high school year are invited to attend — free of charge — The Columbian All-Region Awards Ceremony, which will be held on Wednesday, June 5 at the Kiggins Theater in downtown Vancouver. To register for the ceremony, go to The Columbian events page at Columbian.ticketbud.com